Sherlock after the Fall

a fanbook by khorazir

This fanbook contains 42 pencil drawings created between 8 February 2012 and 16 April 2013. Some were inspired by fanfiction, my own or other people's. For those drawings based on stories, I mention title and author under the artwork. The stories can be found at archiveofourown.org.

I owe a number of people for the inspiration they provided by contributing ideas for the series, particularly afrogeekgoddess, barquebatch, battleangel25, caducus, emmadelosnardos, greyseagirl, justinelark, mrsbananabrain, missilemuse, shinkonokokoro, songstersmiscellany and valeria2067. Thanks so much, folks. A heartfelt thank you also to all those who encouraged yet another drawing with their likes and reblogs.
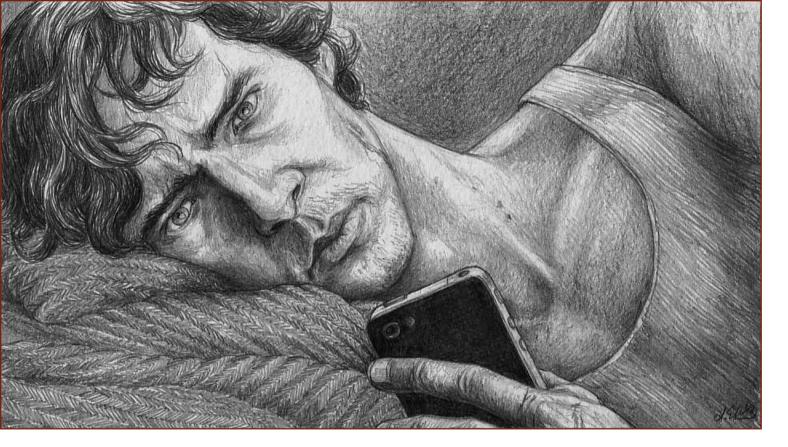

All drawings, some documentation of their conception and evolution, links to the fics they were inspired by, fanfiction inspired by them as well as general musings on the series can be found at my tumblr:
